

The spiritual future of mentally handicapped and autistic people.

part 3.

Reaching spiritual communication.

Session nr 13 of 27 October 2018 – English translation– original Dutch.

Place : Mezza verde in Belgium.

Visitor : Monssoen Melchizedek

***Corrected on 3 November 2018

Monssoen : See, I'm already back. Let's continue with our presentation.

People who are firm believers, who are inwardly seeking a relationship with God through prayer and meditation may receive revelations, may perceive and hear the Thought Adjuster at the level of pure mind. This pure mind has a much higher spiritual level than the "human mind" you received from Mother Spirit in the beginning of your life. In general, man cannot have any recollection in his physical brain of all interactions he has with his God Fragment on that level.

The physical brain of present man is totally incapable of receiving these high spiritual communications with his God Fragment without Heavenly help.

A God Fragment cannot communicate with the physical brain, just as a parent of a child with a mental or autistic disability cannot do it without technological help.

Your bodies have not received the biological upgrade in the past that they needed. And the low percentage of adamic genes inherited by some people today is totally inadequate.

However, this can be done at soul level provided that the soul is sufficiently developed; that she has a full morontia body with a first stage morontia mind. But even in this case, the Thought Adjuster cannot communicate directly with the physical brain. At most with the higher regions of the "human mind" received from Mother Spirit.

In other words, your soul knows much more about your spiritual interactions with your indwelling God Fragment. Your soul goes also to the morontia Mansion Worlds and travels under the guidance of her Angels to different Celestial worlds. Your soul advances according to your altruistic actions and correct decisions you make in your daily life. She moves forward according to the evolution of your relationship with God in your life as a friend; depending on how much you become more concerned about the sake of others than your own.

It is through your soul that something can transpire towards your 'human mind' received from Mother Spirit and from there to your heart-brain.

At first, it will be felt like a "gut feeling" that something is right or wrong; knowing suddenly the solution, knowing for sure what to do; coming out of a meditation with a happy feeling that everything is going to be okay; receiving a sudden intuition, a vision of the future; suddenly understanding a spiritual problem. It can also be symbols that appear during a meditation.

It's also a synchronization of events, actions and encounters of which you know very well that they are not due to luck or pure chance. Certainly not if they happen regularly. Sometimes you have a question in mind and when you take a book in your hands you suddenly read the answer. It's also meeting a stranger who tells you something, exactly what you need to know, the proof that gives you your certainty. All of you can have these experiences.

The more you pray to God and thank Him for what He has given you, the more you open ways that will give you access to all spiritual influences that can inspire you in your heart and soul.

It is your prayers to God and your meditations that will establish divine contact and give permission to the spiritual world to pull you up. You have free will and they must therefore receive a clear sign from you to intervene.

If you are desperate and frightened, eliminate those feelings with an unwavering faith and a strong hope that God will show you the way. Then move forward on this path with courage, confidence and determination. God will then fill you with a strong spiritual energy that will help you solve your problems and move mountains.

If you want to meditate, do it always with the intention of receiving spiritual insight from your God Fragment or Thought Adjuster. It is important that you state this clearly before you start your meditation ; ask your questions at the beginning of your meditation and then shut up.

If you meditate regularly, calmly and seriously, your Thought Adjuster will give orders to help you during your meditations and even while you sleep to stop the flow of your thoughts. Then, He will open new paths and spiritual circuits to bring about spiritual transformations in your subconscious. He can even illuminate your "human mind" received from Mother Spirit. Then physical controllers with other celestial helpers will be able to change your physical body so that you become more aware of His Presence and the knowledge He, your Angels and Celestial Teachers want to convey to you.

If this happens, you may feel it physically on your head: pressure on the crown chakra (# 7), feeling that electrical wires are woven around your head, strong pressure on your head, having the feeling that you have a helmet pressed on the head, buzzing in your head as if you have high blood pressure.

Do not expect that this will happen immediately, nor at every meditation. It is also possible that it happens during your sleep and that you are not aware of it.

We have already placed many circuits of spiritual energy with a legion of seraphim, physical controllers, and many other celestials, as well as morontia communication systems under the guidance of Christ Michael (Jesus) and the supervision of Aya - Master. Spirit # 7 of your Superunivers # 7 - Orvonton in which Nebadon is located.

We began to destroy and replace the morontia energy network damaged by the Luciferian's. All seraphim and other morontia helpers need morontia energy for many purposes.

Many huge 'Light anchors' (Wiv : for want of a better word) have been placed to serve only the Celestials, which are connected to the higher morontia regions of your local universe Nebadon.

Then we placed immense spiritual power plants whose influences are currently spreading all over the planet.

We are now working on the creation of "huge Light buildings" (Wiv: I call them Taj Mahals) operating with the Energy of the Trinity that comes through Christ Michael.

All these implementations are important for our future tasks: those of the Melchizedeks and the two Paradise Sons (Avonal and Creator Son) who will roam your world. The Avonal Son is already born and the Creator Son will soon be born.***

These implementations will also serve men because they possess:

- a function to adjust your physical body so that it becomes more receptive to spiritual influences.

- A function to improve the contact of your morontia soul with your heart-brain. This will allow the growing morontia mind of your soul to unite more easily with your human mind received from Mother Spirit, who will in turn connect to your heart-brain. Meaning that you will, in time, be under control in your daily life by the morontia mind of your soul.

- This will allow you to detect more easily the higher spiritual inspirations you receive from your Thought Adjuster or God Fragment. Maybe even have direct contact following the growth of your soul.

All creatures who have received a “personality” from the Universal Father strive for further development. At first, it will be on the material level, and later, when they reach out to their Creator, they’ll strive to grow further in the spiritual realm. Of course, this requires a transition that may sometimes lead to inner conflicts, as well as conflicts with your social environment and family. It's inevitable.

Man who progresses in spiritual insight, in his relationship with God and his Celestial Helpers changes, transforms. Unfortunately, his close environment is not always open to such a change, is often afraid of it, and needs time to adapt.

Those ambitions so much praised in high society life, those mundane well-paid jobs with high responsibility that seem so important will become in time of lesser value for such a person. Just as the need to amass and possess lots of material goods. The more you are in communion with us, that you undergo the influence of the spiritual world, the more you will reduce your material needs and the happier you will become with a simple, anonymous and useful life.

Your happiness will come from within and will no longer depend on a worldly position, often selfish to feel more powerful and more important than another, nor from the accumulation of material goods or resources.

The apostles of Jesus often discussed the question of who would take the management of the movement that would spread the new gospel. Who would carry responsibilities and exercise authority over others when Jesus leaves. Who would receive a worldly mission and which one?

Jesus knew this and one day gave them a great warning to stop thinking that way.

I will now express the same type of warning in the current situation.

We will work with those who want to attain spiritual greatness, if they:

- demonstrate a love similar to that of God.
- adopt an attitude towards God as a little child does.
- do not defile their goals for personal interest or self-glorification.
- seek divinity.
- have spiritual and altruistic ideals.

We are not going to set up a centralized worldly organization with a physical hierarchy in which people will occupy higher and lower positions.

We will work in a decentralized way with very small groups of people, scattered around the world, whose sole purpose is to develop spiritually and help their brethren, under our guidance and with the abilities we will give them step by step as they evolve.

None of these people, young or old, will have a worldly position. They will come together on an equal footing to receive our live teachings. These small groups of at least three people will be supervised and assisted by an Order of Angels who will help them work in group to achieve a common goal that will receive our approval.

There will be no competition possible:

- between members of a group to lead the group.
- Neither between groups for selfish or arrogant nationalistic reasons.

- Neither to create or keeping alive a religious "clan" that will differentiate itself from other religious "clans", or a "clan" led by a human who will claim to stand between us and the members of the group.

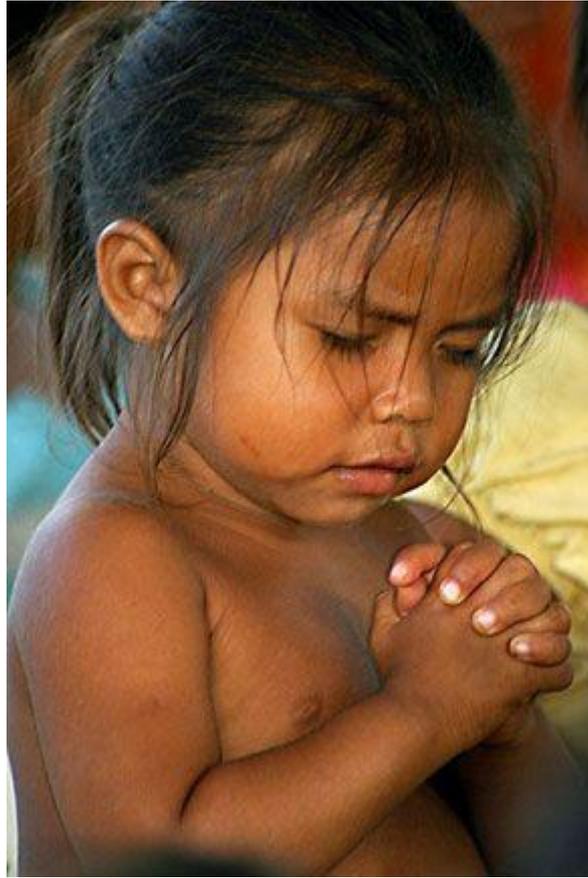

If this happens, the whole group will be dissolved and we will stop working with them.

There will also appear in time groups of people who are living far from each other that will meditate together for this purpose at fixed hours and days. During such meditations we will connect them together in a special energy circuit, with the help of physical controllers and Midwayers, and bring their souls to a place on earth (bilocation) where they will meet to enjoy our teachings live.

Our goal is to help such a "transformed person" to see us and communicate with us directly in the 4th dimension. Those people will remember everything of these lessons in their physical life through their heart-brain. Which is not the case now.

My friends, you are the pioneers of the New Era. You will be asked to put aside anything that you thought was true, false, good or bad. To put aside all you believed in and which brought you to our doorsteps; to open yourselves to the new living Truths that we will teach you personally.

To access it, you will first have to become like this child.

I am Monsoen Melchizedek, at your service.
